

How to insert a blog in to your Weebly Webpage

Login to students.weebly.com

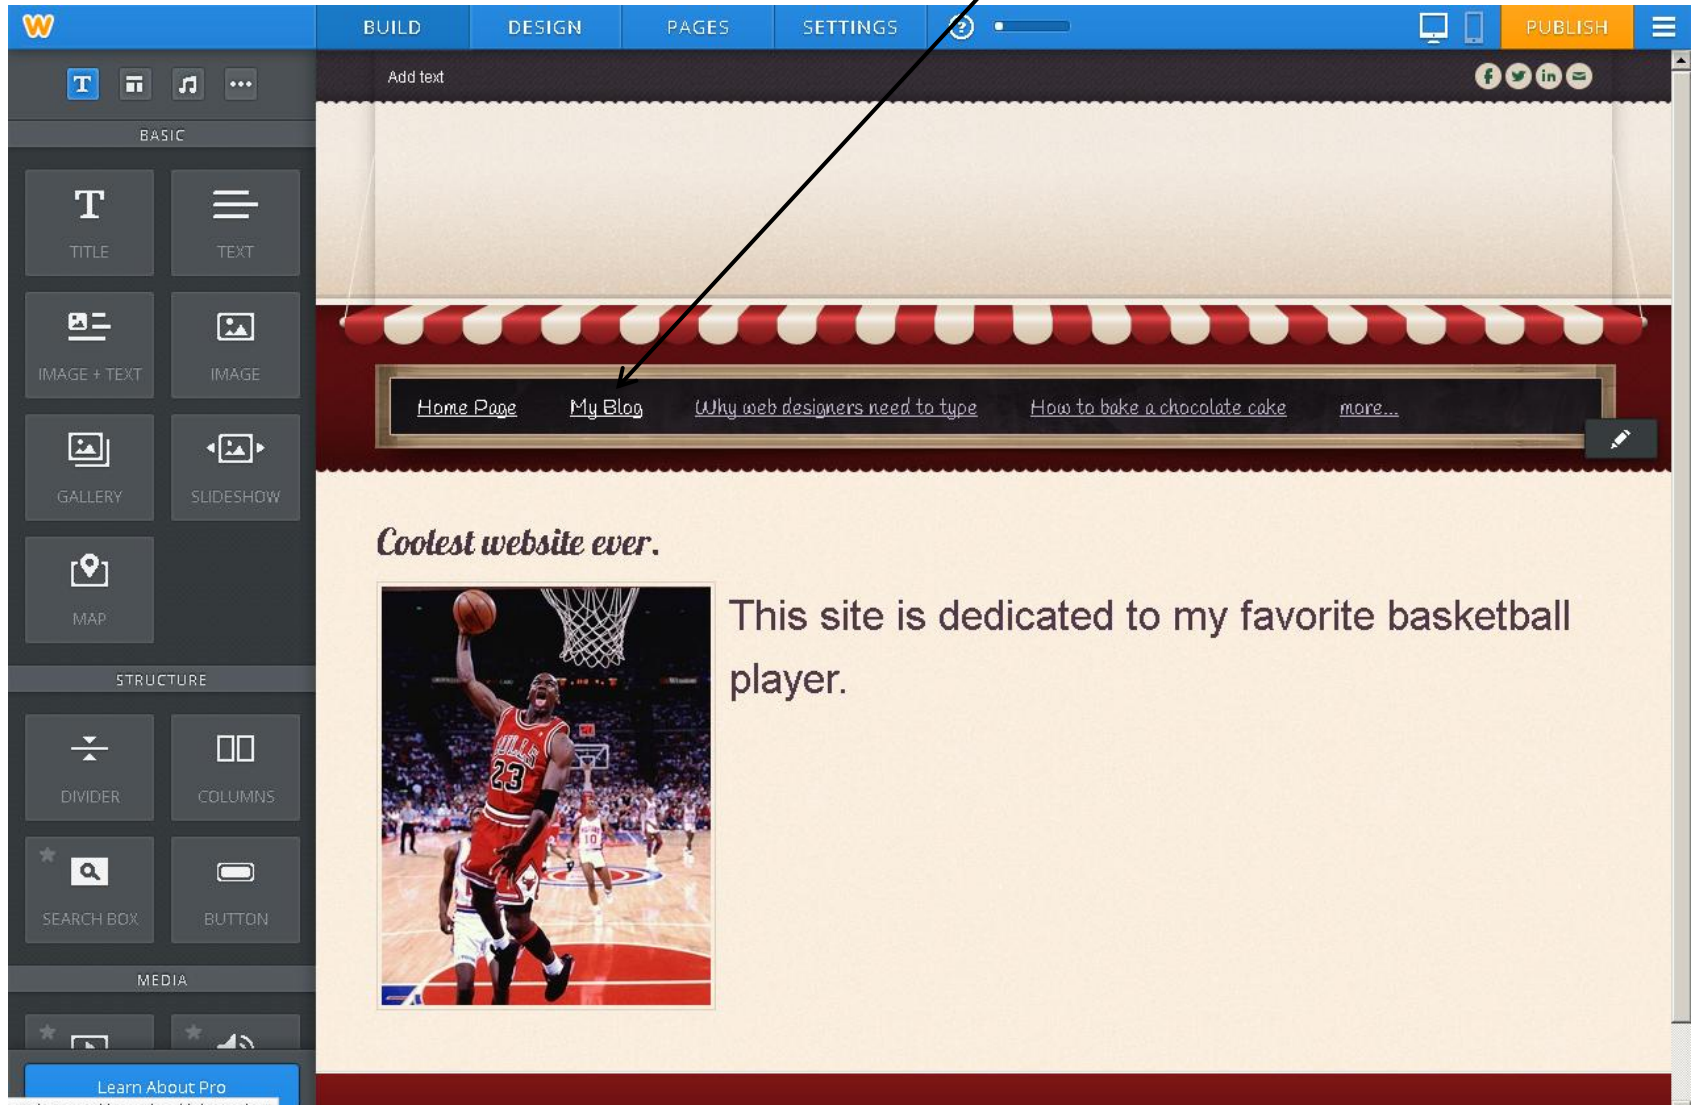

The image shows a screenshot of the Weebly for education login page. At the top, there is a blue header with the Weebly logo (two overlapping white squares) and the text "weebly for education" in orange and white. Below the header, the main content area is white. In the center, there is a dark blue rectangular box containing the login form. The form has the title "Sign in to Weebly" in white. Below the title, there are two input fields: "Username" and "Password", each with a white input box. Below the "Password" field, there is a small link that says "I forgot my password". At the bottom of the form box, there is an orange "Log in" button.

The screenshot shows the Weebly for Education dashboard. At the top left is the Weebly logo with the text "weebly for education". At the top right is a "Logout" link. Below the logo is a blue header bar with "My Weebly" and a small site preview icon. Underneath the header are two buttons: "Create a Site" (orange) and "Account Settings" (blue). The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column contains a site card for "My Site x" with the URL "allblacksinutah.weebly.com" and two links: "Edit Site" (with a pencil icon) and "View Stats >" (with a bar chart icon). A black arrow points from the top of the page down to the "Edit Site" link. The right column contains a "Welcome W Ngatai!" message with the following details: "School: Centennial Middle School", "Teacher: Mr. Ngatai", "Class: Webdesign Period 6", and "Grade: 7".

Click on New Post

Add a title

Drag over Image and Text and Drop it

The screenshot displays the Weebly website builder interface. At the top, a blue navigation bar contains the Weebly logo, tabs for BUILD, DESIGN, PAGES, and SETTINGS, a help icon, a volume slider, and a PUBLISH button. Below the navigation bar is a toolbar with icons for text, columns, music, and more options. The main editing area is divided into two sections: BASIC and STRUCTURE. The BASIC section includes buttons for TITLE, TEXT, IMAGE + TEXT, GALLERY, SLIDESHOW, and MAP. The STRUCTURE section includes buttons for DIVIDER, COLUMNS, SEARCH BOX, and BUTTON. The MEDIA section is partially visible at the bottom. The central content area shows a post titled "My visit to the Utah Zoo this weekend" with a date of 12/06/2013 and 0 Comments. A large dashed box indicates a drag-and-drop area with the text "DRAG ELEMENTS HERE". A blue "IMAGE + TEXT" button is positioned in the center of this area. A red "Cancel Post" button is located in the top right corner of the editing area. On the right side, a "Post Settings" panel is visible, containing sections for Comments (set to Open), Categories (with an Add button), and Share Draft (with a link to http://students.weebly.com and an Open button). The bottom of the interface features a "Learn About Pro" button on the left and a footer on the right that says "Create a free website with Weebly".

Add a picture and type a paragraph and then Publish Live. That's it.

The screenshot displays the Weebly website builder interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with tabs for BUILD, DESIGN, PAGES, SETTINGS, and a PUBLISH button. Below this is a toolbar with icons for text, image, and other elements. The main workspace shows a draft post titled "My visit to the Utah Zoo this weekend". The post content includes a photo of a baby elephant and a paragraph of text. The text reads: "Thank you, Hogle Zoo, for letting everyone celebrate Zuri's first birthday with her! Watching her toss the Tootsie Roll and Smarties over her head made me laugh! I have loved visiting Hogle Zoo since I was a kid. The elephants have always been my favorite – it's so fun to have a baby elephant AND the oldest elephant in North America at our zoo!". The interface also features a "Post Settings" panel on the right with options for comments, categories, and tags. At the bottom, there is a "Share Draft" section with a link and an "Open" button. The text "Add a picture and type a paragraph and then Publish Live. That's it." is overlaid on the top of the image, with arrows pointing to the "Publish Live" button, the photo, and the text area.
