CITIZENSHIP

All students will be treated as responsible, capable, young people. The MAIN responsibility for good citizenship rests directly on the shoulders of the individual student and their parents. Students will be expected to follow the school discipline policy outlined in their School Agenda.

Copying other students work will be considered as cheating and students will be disciplined. Students who allow others to copy their work will also be penalized.

VIDEOS

Occasionally, videos will be shown in class to do with the internet, html or any related material.

ATTENTION STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES:

If you have any disability that may keep you from successfully completing this course, please let your teacher know. Academic accommodations are granted for students who have qualified, documented disabilities. Services are coordinated with the student and instructor through the main office.

TEACHER CONTACT

You may contact the teacher by email (warun@provo.edu) or by calling the Centennial main office and leaving a message. (Both are listed on the top of this sheet.) E-mail contact is by far the most efficient and is encouraged. The teacher will be available to help students starting at 7:40 A.M. each morning and will remain until 3:15 P.M. each afternoon unless he is attending to other school assignments and/or responsibilities
